

Foreword from the Executive Committee....

Dear Members,

Welcome to the conference special newsletter, we are looking forward to seeing you over the course of the conference and hope that those of you who attended the Master Classes enjoyed them and gained some inspiration for your own simulated practice.

If you are yet to sign up for a last minute place you can still do this by visiting the conference site. There you will find the event programme and will know by now that we have attracted prestigious keynote speakers. We have been watching the presentations and viewing the posters submitted by our wonderful members, we are impressed with the number of you who have put so much effort into sharing your work with us and fellow members, we hope you enjoy your live sessions and take time to enjoy the rest of the conference too.

Last week we shared with members our Annual General Meeting; this is also visible on the website at the following link: ASPIH Annual Reports please send in any questions for live answering on the day to donna.major@aspih.org.uk

Enjoy the conference! Try to visit our wonderful exhibition area as our sponsors have put together stands for you to explore. As always we are keen to hear from our members; ideas, improvements and suggested activities; both at conference and by email: membership@aspih.org.uk

We also hope to see many of you at the evening social event on Tuesday 9th at 7.30pm

International Journal of Healthcare Simulations – Advances in Theory & Practice

Free Member Access - For our members requiring online journal access and a platform to submit work for publication

IJoHS is a recently launched simulation-based digital journal in joint ownership with Society for Healthcare Simulation (SHS) and Adi Health+Wellness. IJoHS has been established with a clear vision to achieve excellence in promoting and disseminating simulation research of the highest quality through collaboration with professional societies, thereby promoting health and social care outcomes, globally. Hence, SHS and Adi Health+Wellness in partnership with PASSH will promote an empirical-based impactful platform for scientific and healthcare community to share pioneering ideas, thought papers, research, and practices as well as encourage interprofessional education research and collaborative practice outcomes.

IJoHS is focused on the use of simulation and related innovative technologies as an educational method and intervention for professionals in all areas of healthcare education, workforce development and quality of care. It also covers wide ranging applications including clinical practice and public health. The journal is anchored by an iconic Editor-in-Chief Dr. Debra Nestel and supported by a world-class Editorial Board, Operating Board and Management Board of globally renowned multidisciplinary team of clinicians and experts. For more information, please visit <https://www.ijohs.com/>.

Awards

As part of this year's Annual General Meeting we will be announcing the 2021 Awards, for Accreditation, Science Council and more... please join the AGM at 15.25 on Tuesday 9th November 2021

Accreditation

Whilst we are overjoyed that we are receiving a large number of applications; such a positive response to the accreditation standards we do apologise as we have had to increase our turnaround times as follows:

Individual Application	9 Weeks
Programme Application	12 Weeks
Organisational Application	15 Weeks

Thank you for bearing with us!

From this month's newsletter sponsors:

Thank you to this year's conference sponsors;
